FROM 4 TALKS OF HER HOLINESS SHRI MATAJI NIRMALA DEVI

Sahaja Yoga ▪ Quotes on Incarnations ▪ sakshat.avatar@gmail.com

“But some people are also strange, such as one lady has come and said I believe (worship) in Renuka Devi. Now, particularly, we should not believe in (worship) Renuka Devi’s incarnation. And people believe in these kind of insane things. Some people simply believe in who we believe as incarnations.”

1979-0324 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Chitta, Bordi Shibir, Maharashtra, India (translation from Hindi)

“You know how much we did last time, how many names? Two thousand and ... two thousand, one-hundred-and-eight. Thousand of Saraswati and thousand of Renuka Devi, and a hundred-and-eight of the Mahakali.”

1983-0118 Shri Ganesha Puja, Nasik, Maharashtra, India

“Now the second one is Mahasaraswati, is at Mahurgadh. We always sing Mahurgadawari song, that is the one – is Mahasaraswati, which is also called as Renuka Devi, that’s the right-sided Mahasaraswati.”

1990-1221 Shri Mahalakshmi Puja, Kolhapur, Maharashtra, India (translation from Hindi)

“Same is the situation of Hindu religion. In Hindu religion, there are different real gurus, for example Shri Adi Guru Dattatreya, the Nath Panth. There are different incarnations and different swayambhus. They have different religious books. But in Christian religion, they have only Bible. They can be fundamentalists. Muslims and Jews can be fundamentalists. All these are interrelated. This is written in the Books. But this is not the case of Hinduism. When one is worshipping Mahalakshmi, the other is worshipping Renuka Devi. So each family is different. They believe in incarnations and books.”

1997-1225 Christmas Puja, Ganapatipule, Maharashtra, India (translation from Hindi of the first part of the talk)
