Dear Brothers and Sisters,

My name is Pravina and I am writing from South Africa. Sri Mataji has entered into my life and I am determined to keep Her in my heart. I have searched for salvation in every way I possibly could and believe me, I am certain I have found that treasure. Sri Mataji has so much love to give us (especially she is so merciful to her devotees), so we must receive it gladly and without any doubts about her.

She has come to live amongst us, to guide us in our ascent and so what more can we ask for. In Kali-Yuga where there is corruption and strife, we need some ^{real} teaching to sustain us and that is Sahaja Yoga. Nothing can be more practical and effective like Sri Mataji's teachings.

I have a nine-month old daughter, Yusetha, and I am trying to bring her close to Mother. I am happy to say that at seven months, whenever I asked her to show me where Mataji is, she would turn her eyes towards Sri Mataji's altar and for me that was the ultimate in joy.

I pray to Sri Mataji that everyone of her devotees be strengthened in meditation and for love to flow freely so that we can continue in our prayers. If possible you have any pictures or prayers etc. of Our Loving Mother that I can have, I will be very thankful for them.

Jai Mataji. Aci Shakti Namata Devi Namo Namaha

THE THIRD DAY

It is written, that on the third day, he rose again.

And it was Peter who said:

"But beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing. That one day is with the Lord as a thousand years: and a thousand years as one day!"

Could it be even now, the end of the second day of a thousand years is at hand?

Could it be that with the coming of the comforter - the Holy Spirit - the day of resurrection is upon us and we know it not? That in a little while, we too shall ascend from Hell on this third day - the day of our mortal resurrection?

As John was a voice crying in the wilderness "Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make his paths straight", so too is Sahaja Yoga! For we cry in the wilderness and men do muse in their hearts as to our mission and our message. But when they look upon us - what do they see?

John was a lone voice. John must needs carry out his solitary task in the desert - for that was the way of his time. As the scripture says: "And what went they out to see? A reed shaken in the wind? A man dressed in soft raiment? Or went they out to see a prophet? Yea, and more than a prophet!

Indeed, John was one voice crying in the wilderness. But we are many. John was not of the world; but we are the sons and daughters of the world.

As John prepared the way, so too must we prepare the way of the Lord. So too, must we make straight his paths. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life: and those who find it are few. Know you not it is written that we too shall be known as prophets...? So when the sons of men look upon us, what do they see ??.

The grandfather clock of God ticks loudly. There is left but 23 minutes to midnight in the celestial calendar, set down at the dawn of time.

Therefore, each and every one of us must ask in our hearts - Have we made straight the paths of the Lord?

For we can cry with a great voice in the Kali Yuga wilderness. We can berate our brethren for the motives we perceive in their eyes. But what of the beams in our own? What of our paths?

Those pathways, built within us since man was first recognisable as man... Are they straight? Are the paths of the Holy Ghost like an highway to the Kingdom of Heaven? Or are they still as country lanes? Twisting and turning, with here a stile and there a ford: at times becoming lost in the woods of self deception.

The grandfather clock of God ticks loudly; but do we have ears to hear? The sands in the hourglass of the Creator have slowed to a trickle.

Two thousand years have come and gone. And yet, in the calendar of the Almighty, these words were uttered barely two days ago.

"I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear and have not heard them."

Awake! Ye sleepers on the way. Awake! Open your eyes and ears and let your minds drink in reality! For we are at the end of the second day. And on the third day - it shall be for us to rise again.

KUALA LUMPUR

690 New people. Everybody was so excited and happy they all tried to touch Shri Mataji's Feet and to kiss Her Hands. All the way bowing to Her. Quite amazing! Just quick recognition.

PUJA (Shri Mataji's Birthday).

1pm. Saturday 21st of March - Burwood.

The Wolongong collective would like everyone to know about the miracle which happened after the public programme here. One of the yoginis was asked to distribute the water left in Mother's glass, which she proceeded to do.... to the people back stage, on stage, and in the auditorium. When she returned to the dressing room, she discovered that the water in the glass was at the same level as when she started.

JAI SHRI MATAJI!

There is a significant amount of lost property left over from Shri Mataji's tour. At the moment it is being kept safely at Burwood. However if it is not claimed it will be considered as fair game for the garage sale which will be held at Burwood on Saturday 4th April. So you have until then to claim anything that might be yours. Or alternatively you can buy it back at the garage sale!!! By the way the garage sale is to raise funds for the video library.
